Welcome, bitch

What did you do to deserve the absolute SHIT karma to wind up on this website? Hmmmmm.

You're probably wondering what to do now that you've wandered into this burning crack house. Well, let me assist you.

I totally understand that there is a ton of stuff here so this page is to get you rolling on your adventure here and make sure you don't get in trouble or do some dumbass shit.

So first and foremost, this is a non-combative movement. You don't gain control over and handle that of which you hate or treat like an enemy. We create our own enemies in life and our interest comes straight out of Sun Tzu material: we know our enemies SO FUCKING WELL, that they cease to be our enemy! That's the secret sauce.

If you want to be combative or you are here because you hate the government and the IRS, well, I hope my material can rapidly change your mind. That's not going to get you success and compliance. That will get you a life of pain. If you want to do that then fine, just don't include us in it.

That said, I'm going to show you around a little here and give you the grand tour of my trash heap website that will have your panties soaked very, VERY rapidly.

First and foremost, you should sign up for my FREE Contract Killer Course. There are signup links all over and even a pop-up ad, so if you can't figure out how to do that then you may want to examine how you successfully feed yourself every day. YOU WILL NEED TO SIGN UP THEN ALSO OPT IN ON YOUR EMAIL TO GET THE COURSE. FIND THE OPT IN EMAIL SOMEWHERE IN YOUR SPAM/JUNK FOLDER IF YOU DON'T SEE IT OTHERWISE YOU WILL NOT GET THE COURSE UNLESS YOU FIND THE OPT IN EMAIL AND CLICK THE LINK INSIDE OF IT.

The course comes one video per day for 39 days. Once you finish all those videos, you will be invited to sign up to my Advanced Course.

The Contract Killer Course is a show-and-tell version of my state National Theory page. But, keep in mind, that my state National Theory page has undergone tremendous changes and expansions since the course came out. The Contract Killer Course was released on July 2nd of 2022, so there have been TONS of revelations since then. The videos are still complete but there has been quite a lot of additional info placed on the Theory page.

If you want the HOTTEST, SEXIEST shit, then my state National Theory page will be where you want to go. But the Contract Killer Course has a lot of good shit as well and I show you how to fill out forms (BOX BY PATHETIC BOX) on the course that you don't get from the Theory page. For a fully immersive experience (turning yourself into a cucumber and inserting yourself into my body), you want to make sure you do both the course and read the Theory page.

If you're a goddamn machine and you've already devoured the entire Theory page, plus you're signed up for the free course, I wanna be VERY clear and tell you that no, I will not send you more videos per day. Unless you send me nudes or some shit or invite me over for pillow fights with you and your friends (FEMALES), I'm not going to be giving you more videos than the one-per-day that come naturally. This shit is free so if you think you are in a position to demand shit from me, you're sadly mistaken. I practically get off on emotionally abusing you so go ahead and test me.

BUT, if my voice turns your dick into a Snickers Bar and you simply MUST have more… don't worry. I got you.

There is a Podcasts page here on my website that covers all the external shows I have been on. I have my own show as well so when I say "external," what I mean is other people's shows. My average show length is 2–3 hours (just like my average penis size of 2-3 inches).

If you would like to see MY shows, you can find them on my YouTube page (link on top right of website on desktop or on dropdown on mobile, near the bottom).

By the time you finish the course and the Theory page, you're going to be an annoying dumbass and say "well what do I do first?!"

The answer is, do whatever you want. There isn't necessarily a first-second-third. If you are employed, you should give your employer a W8-BEN. You will also need to send the IRS a Form 56. If you are self-employed then just send in a Form 56 (you don't need the W8-BEN).

If you have no idea what I'm talking about, those are just forms that help you LEGALLY never pay taxes again. No biggie.

You want to do your passport rapidly… but you want to make sure that you REALLY understand all the basics before you do your passport. But your passport is like the first BIG goal. You wanna nail that fucker.

Then make sure you handle your Driver's License, Marriage License and other bullshit. I teach you all about that on the course but not so much on the Theory page.

As for Social Media, I don't do a whole lot on Instagram. I'm mainly on Facebook. Why, you ask? Because Facebook is a primarily TEXT-BASED platform. I don't do a lot of pictures or videos (unless I'm getting naked for you guys), so I actually prefer Facebook and have built my entire brand on that platform. So if you wanna jam your big deformed nose up my ass and see all the stupid shit that I'm doing and thinking on a daily basis, Facebook is where you want to follow.

LinkedIn is fucking pathetic. Everyone pretends to care about the dumbest shit. I want to gag on dick every time I go on there so I don't really use it.

Oh, another important thing, once you sign up for my course, sometimes I share some really hilarious newsletters on the email list. I would say maybe two additional email blasts per month. You definitely wanna be on the list for that. But keep in mind, I remove you from the list if you don't open and click on the emails. The last thing I need is limp-dick FUCKS. So keep that in mind. I clean probably 50% off the list on a continual basis and I actually segment off the list and tear into the people on it. I get tons of hate mail, threats, and I even get blocked by my email provider and I have to jump through a series of hoops to release my email. The whole thing is a sexual experience for me. So keep that in mind. Once I remove you, that email becomes locked and you will need to use another one and sign up all over again from scratch (what a walk of shame).

Now, once you have completed the course and read the Theory page, you MAY want to head over to the state Nationals Resources page. Over there I have info on my favorite books, various statutes, etc. It's kind of like a giant grab bag of sexy shit. Definitions you may have been looking for, etc.

I have written two books and I have pages for both of them. You may wanna order those as well if you're interested. Neither book has almost anything to do with all this legal and political shit so if you're here just for that then don't bother.

ONCE YOU COMPLETE MY ENTIRE COURSE AND MY THEORY PAGE IN FULL AND YOU HAVE FILED SOME SHIT LIKE MAYBE A W8-BEN AND FORM 56: at this point you may want to look at my Cucumber's Law dicktionary. This will make more sense to you at this point and may be the next step for you. It's one of the pages of my website so you can't miss it. You may want to print that out and send it in.

If you would like to see all my fans and how unrealistically sexy they are, head over to the "fan" art and submissions page.

There are other pages as well but this section is for beginners or people who are FAIRLY new to all this. So this guide should be plenty for you to give you guidance. I hope you love this shit as much as I do and let's stand together to bring the sleeping true America up and out of the ground. There is plenty of other things to check out so click around and adventure into the world of a cucumber (there might even be a secret part of my website at the bottom of each page in the yellow section that you can check out).

I love America so much. I hope you do too.
